

INSANITY ALERT

Insanity Alert is a thrash metal / crossover band from Innsbruck, Austria - influenced by the likes of SOD, Suicidal Tendencies, DRI, Nuclear Assault and newer bands like Municipal Waste and Toxic Holocaust. In August 2011 Insanity Alert played their first show, as direct-support of Suicidal Tendencies at Radio Onda d'Urto festival in Brescia, Italy. 5000 people saw the band thrash through a 30-minute set of complete Insanity. Jaws dropped, devil horns were raised. Mike Muir told the guys he was impressed and that IA's version of 'I Shot The Devil' was almost better than the Suicidal version.

With a basic line-up consisting of guitar, bass, drums and vocals, the four thrashers from Tirol wasted no time. Fast and short songs were written, relying on killer riff and aggressive vocals with lyrics about zombies, insanity, weed/beer and thrashing harder! Insanity Alert has released two EP's, 'First Diagnosis' and 'Second Opinion', before their self-titled debut full-length came out on Empire Records (B) in October 2014. The record contains 14 Insanity Alert originals, plus a twisted version of Iron Maiden's Run To The Hills, now RUN TO THE PIT. September 2016 will see the release of Insanity Alert's second full-length "Moshburger" on This Charming Man Records (D) – It's in your face, fast, catchy as shit and has a massive old school feeling!

Live, the band is a force to be reckoned with. Insanity Alert already had the pleasure of sharing stages all over Europe with bands like Suicidal Tendencies, Nuclear Assault, Death Angel, Napalm Death, Municipal Waste, Toxic Holocaust, Iron Reagan, Gama Bomb, Pro-Pain, Valient Thorr, Cannabis Corpse, Ghoul, Exodus, Exhumed, SSS, Dr. Living Dead, Limp Bizkit, Master or First Blood, just to name a few...Moreover they raged on festivals like Summer Breeze, Speedfest, Turock Open Air, Scumbash, Mighty Sounds and Dokk'em Open Air.

Insanity Alert has also recorded several videos for their songs. The video for 'Glorious Thrash' has now 50.000 views on Youtube.com The band is always ready to thrash a party near you soon. Run to the pit, mosh for your life!
